Headline:
Showers in the north and east, feeling cooler.

Today:
Weather improving with showers lighter, less frequent and largely across the north and far east. Much of southern Aberdeenshire staying dry with brightness increasing through the afternoon but certainly feeling cooler in the northerly winds. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Tonight:
Showers continuing overnight for Moray and Northern Aberdeenshire but a few clear spells in the south. A chilly night in the strengthening northerly winds. Minimum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Wednesday:
Fresh to strong northerly winds will push showers into North of the area on Wednesday and a real cold feel to the day. Best brightness towards Deeside and Mearns coastline. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
A cold, but bright and sunny day on Thursday. Cloudier and milder on Friday but mainly dry. Likely a wet and windy day on Saturday.
